Speaking

GSE: 76/90   CEFR: C1

Candidates at this level can clearly speak on a range of topics with fluent, elaborated, and well-structured speech; use diverse vocabulary, English expressions, and grammatical structures appropriately. Speech is fluent and intelligible, and candidates can interact in real time with ease and confidence.

Tips to improve:

- Practice talking about a recent event and how it impacted you or other people.
- Practice giving detailed advice to a friend on an important decision they need to make (e.g. changing a course of study at university or leaving a secure job), discussing the advantages and disadvantages of each suggestion.

Speaking

The Speaking score reflects the ability to use English grammar and expressions accurately and appropriately in both constrained and more open-ended responses. Performance depends on clearly and accurately producing content and confidently presenting a view on a topic and giving reasons for it. Scores also reflect speaking with English pronunciation norms, conversational fluency, and in a way that proficient English speakers find understandable.

Manner of Speaking

GSE: 71/90   CEFR: B2+

Candidates at this level can be understood only with minimal effort by listeners; pronounce most vowels and consonants understandably although accent tends to be influenced by another language; use appropriate stress and rhythm in general; express themselves with a relatively even tempo with few noticeably long pauses.

Tips to improve:

- Let other people listen to your English speech and ask them to provide feedback on the pace of your speech.
- Find a person you would like to sound like. Listen to them over and over again and find out how that person talks.

Manner of Speaking

The Manner of Speaking score reflects the ability to speak in a way that proficient English speakers easily find understandable. Performance depends on pronouncing English sounds in ways that are close to typical norms without too much of an accent. It also reflects the ability to speak at a normal conversational pace, without too much hesitation or unusual pauses between words, phrases, or sentences.

Listening

GSE: 80/90   CEFR: C1

Candidates at this level can easily comprehend both short and extended speech with a range of vocabulary, at a conversational pace. Candidates' interactions show very good understanding of main points and nuances of passages and conversations in everyday workplace situations.

Tips to improve:

- Listen to or watch extended, complex professional and technical presentations, trying to understand the details and speaker's viewpoints.
- Listen to or watch speeches by famous people, working on understanding their feelings, attitudes, and implied meanings.

Listening

The Listening score reflects the ability to understand specific details and main ideas from everyday and workplace speech spoken at a conversational pace.
